

About us:

Who we are:

AxisRSE is a consulting company specialized in Social Responsibility awareness whose strategic focus is to transfer its professional expertise to the integration of financial, environmental and social aspects through its mission, processes and the relationship with its stakeholders inside the enterprises.

AxisRSE focuses its consulting activity towards the business core of enterprises or their institutional performance under the assumption that SR is built from the center of the organization outwards.

AxisRSE has a representative office in Bogotá, Colombia and is founder member of the Latin American SR Consulting Network .

OUR MISSION:

Provide innovative solutions of strategic consulting on Corporate Social Responsibility, adding value and transforming the relationship between companies with their stakeholders into a competitive advantage within a frame of sustainable development.

OUR VISION:

Be a leading company in the transfer of management systems and tools of Social Responsibility in order to improve competitiveness in enterprises in Chile, Latin America and other regions.

OUR VALUES:

Through its consulting services AxisRSE encourages companies to adopt a model of performance and socially responsible practices in order to contribute to a fairer, more balanced and sustainable society.

AxisRSE provides innovative and sustainable consulting solutions to companies and organizations interested in seeking to advance towards management systems which increasingly integrate SR components.

AxisRSE does not offer services to organizations merely interested in improving their image (greenwash).

AxisRSE does not develop activities intended to support political or religious causes.

AxisRSE uses objective indicators to measure the impact of all the solutions to be implemented.
